

Life After Life

LYRIC SHEET • STANDARD ARRANGEMENT

INTRO

Do you wanna live life after life, after life... After life... after life...

VERSE 1

Do you wanna live life after life, after life? Same old hunger, different skies Endless grind in a painful life Every promise wears with time Constant belief in a fake release Every win, but no real peace Round and round, the wanting bends Every start loops back again

PRE-CHORUS

Tell me— If the chase never satisfies Why we still call this perfect life?

CHORUS

Do you believe it ever ends? (ends, ends, ends) Do you believe it ever stops? (stops, stops, stops) All the pain, pain, pain— All the craving, all the endless spin Do you believe it ever ends? (ends, ends, ends) All the never-enough thoughts When the wanting tears us up Do you believe it ever stops?

POST-CHORUS DROP

(It ends...) When nothing's left to chase

VERSE 2

People hurt each other chasing signs Empty dreams, borrowed time We trade stillness for the noise Trade our freedom for more choice Different faces, same refrain Same old thirst dressed up as gain But what if peace is not escape? What if peace is seeing straight?

When the fire stops feeding flame Nothing left to pull or claim

CHORUS

Do you believe it ever ends? (ends...) Do you believe it ever stops? (stops...) All the pain, pain, pain— All the craving, all the spin Do you believe it ever ends? All the never-enough thoughts When the wanting breaks apart Do you believe it ever stops?

BRIDGE (HALF-TIME, STRIPPED)

Not erased, not asleep Not running somewhere deep When the thirst no longer drives This is where the freedom lives Still the world, still the sound But no chain is pulling now

FINAL CHORUS

I know it can end! (ends, ends, ends) • I know it can stop! (stops, stops, stops) Just need wisdom to see through • All the wanting in my thoughts I know it can end! (ends, ends, ends) Many walked this road before • It's a truth that takes real courage To see through wanting—nothing more

OUTRO

After life... after life... What if freedom starts right now?
