

Secret Jewel

by Bodhi-Bowl

VERSE 1

Alarm clock screams in the morning grey
Another race to win today
Pushing through the crowded street
Another face you have to meet
Chasing dreams that shift and change
In a world that feels so strange
Measuring worth in a dollar sign
Feeling tired, all the time

PRE-CHORUS

And your shoulders feel the weight
Is it getting far too late?
To find a different kind of way...
To face the coming day...

CHORUS

Om Mah nee pard may home
(Shifting mindset, starting to see the Truth, wondering the purpose of the chase...)

Om Mah nee pard may home
There's a secret that the wise ones know...
A quiet truth that helps you grow...
Om Mah nee pard may home

VERSE 2

You can climb to the highest floor
And still be wanting, still need more
You can win the praise of a thousand eyes
And still be lost under those same skies
This competition has no end
Just a broken heart to mend

PRE-CHORUS

And your spirit starts to break
For your own and others' sake
Is there a different kind of way...
To face the coming day...

CHORUS

Om Mah nee pard may home
Om Mah nee pard may home
There's a secret that the wise ones know...

A quiet truth that helps you grow...
Om Mah nee pard may home

BRIDGE

And the secret isn't found in the chase
It's in a quiet, hidden space
It blooms like a lotus, pure and bright...
In the darkest hour of the night...
A jewel of contentment, shining clear...
The only thing that banishes fear...

OUTRO

Om Mah nee pard may home...
The secret jewel...
Om Mah nee pard may home...
In the heart of the lotus...
Om Mah nee pard may home...
Enough... enough...
Om Mah nee pard may home...
[Fades out on the mantra]
