[Intro — Spoken, teasing]
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing...
Oh, you thought I'd never know?

[Verse 1]
Late-night calls, another lie,
You look me straight into my eyes.
You played your game, you crossed that line,
Now you say the fault ain't mine?

[Pre-Chorus]
You knew the rules, you knew the stakes,
You made your choice, now feel the break!
Don't come crying, don't pretend,
You knew exactly how this ends!

[Chorus]
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing!
Sneaking around, thought you'd get away,
Now the truth comes out, and you're gonna pay!
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing!
You made your choice,
Now it's coming back to you!

[Post-Chorus
Oh-oh! You knew, you knew!
Oh-oh! Now what you gonna do?
Doing, doing, doing!
Don't act like you never knew!

[Verse 2]
Now you say it meant nothing at all,
Just one mistake, one little fall.
You want forgiveness, one more chance,
But I won't join your second dance!

[Pre-Chorus]
You had your fun, you had your way,
But you can't undo yesterday!
No more excuses, no more lies,
I'm done believing your disguise

[Chorus]
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing!
Sneaking around, thought you'd get away,
Now the truth comes out, and you're gonna pay!
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing!
You made your choice,
Now it's coming back to you!

[Bridge]
You thought that love meant I'd stay blind,
That I'd forgive you every time.
But every choice has its price to pay,
And I choose me — I'm walking away!

[Final Chorus]
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing!
Sneaking around, thought you'd get away,
Now the truth comes out, and you're gonna pay!
What you think you're doing?
Doing, doing, doing!
You made your choice,
Now I'm choosing me too!

[Outro]
You knew what you were doing...
Doing, doing, doing.
Now you know what I'm doing.
I'm leaving you.

What You Doing

"What You Doing" is a sassy, feel-good anthem about knowing your worth and having the courage to walk away from dishonesty. With a Buddhist attitude, we can recognise that trust has been broken without being consumed by anger or revenge. We cannot change another person's choices, but we can choose our own response. Sometimes, the wisest move is to let go, walk away, and protect our peace — with our dignity intact and a little diva attitude!
